

Water-conscious planting

Plant used in the green area (landscape) are drought-tolerant, so they don't need much water at all to survive and thrive. Examples of those plants are Yucca, Furcaria, and Euphorbia.

